

CONSERVATION WALKS

The walk follows the Eastern bank of the River Cocker which meanders through the pastures and meadows of the Lorton Vale, overlooked by towering fells.

This access has been provided under Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Country Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends in September 2013.
